

*i know you're in here
*somewhere
*you came with someone *there's something you need *someone out there *but try to love the one you're *with tonight

*try to love the one you're *with *late at night sometimes it *helps

*if you dont have to be all by *yourself

*in a moment, life could end *and this could all be over with *i know you're in here somewhere *you came out alone

*something you need *its been so long

*gotta find the one *who'll hold you tight

// resolving an avoidant attachment style is a simple matter.

// all my words get choked up.

// I can't handle texting anymore its exhausting.

// when I was with [...] I was actually thinking of you.

// the pull wasn't hard enough.

// rippled white sheets to deep dive.

// scent hound, sensory overload, a runners high that puts me in a trance-like state.

// I could use my maw again to prove my self worth, and let you in one more time.

// I don't react well to overt kindness and care from strangers, my praise kink goes only as far as being told I'm your good little fuck puppy toy.

// the niceities are undeserved and too kind.

// do you think we could put on a good show if we draw the curtains back?

// I can be whatever you want me to be.

// fuck me and hold my hand tenderly.

// drawn and quartered kill me slow.

// dumb infatuated puppy.
